

Newsletter advertising

Reach 120 000 Norwegian students directly on email!

We send electronic newsletters about education to more than 120 000 students every month. You can reach this large target group with an article about your institution on the front page of the newsletter for only 9900,- NOK. (VAT is not applicable)

As far as we know, no one else can compete with this price or the number of recipients if you wish to reach this target market in Norway.

Article specifications:

The articles in the newsletter have room for a short title, one picture and an introduction of up to 25 words. There will also be a link to the complete article, which will be visible on the front page of our website during the relevant time period. It will also be featured on our facebook profile and Twitter. The complete article can contain text and pictures that fit into an A4 page, using font size 10. You can also include a link to your own website in the main article.

Discounts

We offer discounts if participating in more than one newsletter. Contact us for a good offer.
